

The Arizona Department of Education and the Wallace Leadership Project are offering a NEW professional development opportunity.....

Coaching Leaders to Attain Student Success: A Training for Coaches of Site Administrators

- Background

This three-day training is designed to prepare individuals to provide intensive individualized support to new and veteran administrators. This program is based upon the New Teacher Center's (University of California at Santa Cruz) groundbreaking work coaching new and veteran teachers and principals. The Stupski Family Foundation provided funding in support of the development of the training. The Wallace Foundation is providing funding to offer this unique training opportunity for educators in the state of Arizona.

- Intended Audience

This workshop is designed for individuals interested in serving as:

- Coaching of beginning and veteran principals, assistant principals
- Instructors in administration pre-service programs
- Individuals responsible for the design and implementation of professional development programs for school leaders, including central office personnel

- Outcomes

Participants will:

- Understand the learning and support needs of new and veteran site administrators
- Learn and practice a variety of coaching strategies and skills designed to meet the needs of coaches serving new and veteran school administrators in induction and other professional development programs
- Access a variety of tools and resources specific to needs of administrator clients
- Understand the characteristics of a well designed, coaching-based program of leadership development for site administrators
- Become part of a new learning community of leadership coaches
- Enhance their confidence and competence as educational leaders

~ Perspectives on Coaching

The most effective way to forge a winning team is to call on the players' need to connect with something larger than themselves.
Phil Jackson

Masterful coaches inspire people by helping them recognize the previously unseen possibilities that lay embedded in their existing circumstances.
